INSTRUCTOR OF MATHEMATICS

THE HILL SCHOOL MISSION

The Hill School prepares young men and women from across the country and around the world for college, careers, and life. Within a family school environment and a rigorous liberal arts curriculum, we challenge our young people to work hard; think and reason; be fulfilled; serve the common good; and be prepared to lead as citizens of the world, uniquely guided by our motto, "Whatsoever Things Are True."

Department: Science

Position Title: Instructor of Mathematics

Reports To: George D. Senter Chair of the Mathematics Department

Status: Exempt, 10-month Residential, Teaching Faculty

POSITION SUMMARY

The Hill School seeks a full-time Instructor of Mathematics for the 2023-24 academic year. Working closely with other members of the department, this teacher will be responsible for classroom instruction, curriculum design, and the ability and desire to model courses around current trends in education while still providing a solid fundamental base. The Hill School's mathematics department has designed its own integrated approach to all mathematics courses leading to calculus and statistics. All of our faculty serve as athletic coaches or co-curricular program leaders.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND QUALIFICATIONS

Ideally, a candidate will possess at least 3 years of experience teaching mathematics at the secondary school level in a variety of courses. Other skills and/or qualities necessary for this position are: effective verbal and written communication skills; a genuine willingness to work closely with students and colleagues; a high energy level; and, of course, a good and enduring sense of humor! A bachelor's degree in Mathematics is required; a master's degree is preferred. Start date for this position is mid-August 2023.

The primary responsibilities for this position include (but are not limited to):

- Teaching four sections of mathematics at a variety of levels among the integrated mathematics courses and calculus and/or statistics. Hill's course catalog can be found here.
- Assisting the School's residential program on weeknights and over weekends in some capacity.
- Serving the School's co-curricular programs and afternoon activities.

Hill

ATTITUDE AND DEMEANOR

- Publicly support the mission and vision of The Hill School in a positive and professional manner.
- Work as a dynamic team member in a professional collaborative environment.
- Energetic and organized enough to thrive in an extremely fast-paced environment while collaborating with a growing team to produce great work.
- Ability to wear many hats, learn new things every day, and have the ability to switch from a variety of roles with ease and excitement.
- Communicate effectively with warmth, sensitivity, humor, and understanding as they deal with administrative colleagues, teachers, students, alumni, parents, faculty, staff, and program associates.
- Possess a “service attitude” - willingness to be flexible to meet the needs of the department and school.
